HUNTING SEASON

Great-Rain-Fall Yesterday Makes Birthday Beautifully Celebrated Sport Ideal--Large Parties Getting Ready.

"Bob Whites" will be playing hiding seek at a merry gate this week, for the hunters are getting busy for a great onslaught.

Yesterday's rains make the season fine, as the fields were extremely dry. There is some controversy about the quail crop. Some of the farmers say it niversary of the birthday of Mrs. Atis poor on account of the heavy rains kinson and the occasion was one of the last spring, others say it could not be happiest of her long life.

Sam Conrad said the other day that quail is scarce and most of the birds ment of subject and date, then come are in the hills. Will Pate says there are large conveys at every turn, as the season was so dry last year that the farmers allowed little hunting and more Do the right thing if you have Nasal birds than usual were left to multiply. J. H. Gardner, of Hardinsburg, took
